Program: Secure Detention

Per Diem $100

20 beds co-ed

Accredited by the Dept. of Corrections. Secure detention provides services to males and females, who are pre- and post-dispositional. Residents attend school year round working on either schoolwork from their home school or activities such as life skills provided by the Detention Center Educator. GED prep services are available for those eligible. Community volunteers provide after-school tutoring, religious services, life skills training and other opportunities.
